Dear Dr. _____:

Re: Requirement to withdraw appeal

My name is _____, (I.D. # _____) and I am in my _____ year in the Faculty of _____. I received a letter dated _____ requiring me to withdraw due to an unsatisfactory GPA. I would like to appeal that decision.

I am appealing because . . .

Use this section to outline any extenuating circumstances or any reasons your GPA might have been below standard. There are two basic umbrella categories that provide grounds for appeal: medical (which includes any illness, disease, surgery, etc) and humanitarian (which includes a wide variety of stresses on your life ranging from a troubled home life to extreme financial hardship). Be specific: include dates if you have them, names of relevant people you spoke to, factors contributing to your stress load. The use of documentation is highly recommended and in most cases will be required in order to corroborate your story.

I am working to improve my grades by . . .

This section can be very useful in outlining what you have already done, what you are doing and what you will do to ensure that your academic performance will improve if your appeal is granted. Strategies may include the use of specific student services, medical services, counseling services or any other service that could help improve your grades. Be sure to include only things you plan to do or have already done.

I ask that I be allowed to . . .

Use this section to ask for the relief that you think you deserve. For example, you could request that your Requirement to Withdraw be reconsidered and that you be allowed to remain in the faculty under academic probation/warning. (Check the Faculty Appeal Regulations for the term your faculty uses.)

Thank you in advance for consideration in this matter. I can be reached at (phone number) or (e-mail). Please feel free to contact me if you need any further information.

In this section, note if you will be away for any length of time and if there is an alternative way to contact you.

Sincerely,
